Choosing a Saint (Christian Name)

For Confirmation

For Confirmation, it is a tradition in many churches to choose the name of a saint. This saint is someone with whom you can identify and whom you admire. Saints are people who have lived as good examples of the Catholic Christian life. There are saints who were soldiers, kings, teachers, mothers, and simple workers. Use catholic.org to search for a saint with whom you can identify. You may choose a male or female saint. This will become, for you, a fourth name. This saint will be your patron saint. You can ask him or her to look down from heaven and help you through everything that you go through in your life.
